

TOMORROW, AUG. 13TH

WILL BE

Co-Operative Sales Day IN ABBEVILLE

The Ladies of the Civic League will Serve a

BARBECUE DINNER

In the Room next door to Ford Garage.

DINNER 50c, INCLUDING TEA OR COFFEE.

An enterprise of Helpfulness, in which everybody will profit. The farmer will bring anything he has to sell to town—anything he doesn't need—can't use, or anything that has outgrown its usefulness. His neighbor will do likewise and trading and bartering will be the order ON THE SQUARE.

You remember dollar day in Abbeville. You remember the bargains you found in the stores of Abbeville. You remember the free lemonade and the atmosphere of goodwill that everywhere prevailed. You remember the good time you had. You were satisfied, the merchants were satisfied, the newspapers were satisfied, the chamber of commerce was satisfied. This will be on the order of another dollar day, except the farmers will bring in their stuff, and the bargains will not be confined to the small compass of a dollar.

There Will Be Bargains For All!

You can get bargains in exchange for bargains. In other words it is planned that this will be a kind of horse-traders convention, except trading will not be confined to horses.

Bring in your horses, cows, mules, chickens, wagons, buggies, Fords, automobiles, mowing machines, pigs, dogs, walking sticks, Jews harps, pianos, old violins, wash pots with holes in them, your old pocket knife that has only one handle. Bring anything you haven't any use for yet which somebody else may need. You will find something you do want that you can trade it for.

If You Can't Use It; Trade It. That's The Motto.
